OLD MEN WHOOP IN SCHOOL.

They Give Chicago Pupils Samples of Indian Yells in Early Days.

Children attending the Jones school, Harrison street and Plymouth court, in Chicago, were recently treated to a realistic presentation of Indians on the warpath when Alexander Beaubien and Fernando Jones, who had been invited to give a lecture on Indian customs and manners, broke forth into a blood curdling medley of redskin yells and war whoops which made the girls turn pale and the boys shudder, says the Chicago Post.
